APA Membership Dues Notice!

The APA membership dues year begins on January 1 and members are expected to renew by the first of the year. However, APA has always offered a grace period as part of the renewal cycle to allow members an extended period of time to pay before their memberships lapse. For 2017, the grace period is 3 months, which is consistent with the practice of other medical associations. Therefore, APA members must either enroll in the Scheduled Payment Plan or pay dues by Friday, March 31 to avoid being dropped from the membership rolls. If you haven't renewed yet, please do so on the APA website. If you have questions, please contact APA President Maria Oquendo, MD or APA CEO & Medical Director, Saul Levin, MD, MPA.
